

JOHNSON

Mrs. E. H. Scott was in Waterville last week.

O. B. Landon was at South Hero last week.

Mrs. J. R. Hill's condition is about the same.

The Green Mountain Club met Monday evening.

J. W. McCain is having his residence newly painted.

Miss Theda Jones has gone to Burlington for a few days.

A. E. Partlow was home from Hardwick over Sunday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stearns July 5.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sweet, Friday, July 10.

Miss Edith Atwell has returned home from a visit in Brandon.

Mrs. E. M. Green is in Montpelier and Cambridge for a few days.

Miss Essie Demeritt has gone to Lake Clear, N. Y., for the summer.

Miss Mabel Austin, who has been ill for several days, is improving.

Lloyd Bentley of Morrisville is assisting in C. P. Jones' drug store.

Roland Sargent left Monday for Saranac, where he has employment.

Miss George from Boston is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. A. Barrows.

Mrs. Sarah Collins has returned from a visit to her cousin, Mrs. Sulham.

Mrs. John Baxendale of Montgomery is a guest of Mrs. H. A. Barrows.

Mrs. Cassida Davis of Morrisville was a guest at O. H. Wilson's last Friday.

Hathaway Co. will open a series of entertainments here Thursday evening.

Lloyd Fullington has gone to Enosburg Falls to visit his cousin Roy Fullington.

Kenneth Partlow of Hardwick came Tuesday to visit his grandfather, Joel Partlow.

School Supervisor Carroll Drowne is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drowne.

Miss Bertha Morgan, a former teacher in the Normal school, is a guest at C. H. Stearns.

Miss Lou Mossman and mother, Mrs. Waldo Mossman, are guests of Mrs. Anna Pearl.

Mrs. Anna Walker of Concord, N. H., is visiting her nieces, Mrs. Wareham and Mrs. Mills.

Thomas & Jameson put on moving pictures at the opera house every Tuesday night.

Mrs. Maude Gates and Miss Alice Hayford were guests at Mrs. Hamlin Griswold's Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Vaughan and daughter Ruth, of Chicago, are visiting at Mrs. Flora Hooper's.

Mrs. John Laraway has returned from a visit to her niece, Mrs. Chas. Alchurch, in New York City.

Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Folsom have been called to East St. Johnsbury by the illness of her mother.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

Roland Miller has returned from Nova Scotia, accompanied by his mother, who will remain here for some time.

Miss Lucy Baker entertained the Summer School teachers and pupils Monday afternoon, on her lawn.

Mrs. J. B. Kidder of Swanton was called here last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Powell of Jeffersonville and Amos Leach of Fairfax are guests at H. M. Maxfield's.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

The only Baking Powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

J. E. Woodward and family and Mrs. Lena Woodward, went to Hinesburg the first of the week to visit their sister, and Paul, son of Mrs. Lena Woodward, returned home with them.

William H. Sinclair fed from a load of hay Friday afternoon, sustaining two serious cuts on his head as he struck the lines of a pitchfork. Dr. Prentiss cared for him, taking fifteen stitches in one of the cuts.

The lightning struck the barn on the farm owned by Chas. Bradford Saturday evening between 10 and 11 o'clock, burning both barn and house to the ground. The farm was formerly the Julius Sinclair place.

The 'young ladies' lawn party last Friday evening was very much enjoyed and well attended. Arthur Stearns played on his violin, which added much to the enjoyment of the evening. Over $21 was received and $17 was cleared.

The ladies of the W. R. C. gave Mrs. George Whiting a visit Tuesday afternoon, taking refreshments with them. Mrs. Whiting fully appreciated their presence and good cheer in her shut-in condition and the time was pleasantly spent.

The local W. C. T. U. has been appealed to for clothing for the Salem, Mass., fire sufferers. Any contributions may be left with Mrs. Wm. Rushford or Mrs. Joseph Muzzey. Some contributions have already been sent. Expedition is necessary.

Mrs. H. W. Peck has returned from Pittsford, where she has spent several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Roland Snifford, and has visited her daughter, Mrs. J. Allen Dodds, at North Hero. Her little granddaughter, Frances Dodds, returned home with her.

The annual offering for Foreign Missions will be received at the morning service of the Congregational church next Sunday morning at 10:45. Christian Endeavor meeting in the evening at 7:30. Subject, "Faithful in Little Things." Scripture, Luke 16:10-13. The attendance at Sunday school last Sunday was 89 with a collection of $1.04.

Taylor Withey Mead of Morrisville and Miss Winnifred Blinn Wilson of Johnson were united in marriage on Monday, July 13, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville H. Wilson. The Rev. W. E. Baker of Morrisville performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Mead will be at home after August 1 at Morrisville. Johnson friends extend congratulations.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

R. L. Marcy and A. R. Bradley, both of Johnson, return to Brockton, Mass., Friday morning to resume their duties with the Besse-Baker Co. Mr. Marcy has been with the firm two years as clothing salesman and Mr. Bradley has been located in Brockton for four years as window-dresser. The Besse system consists of a chain of 42 stores located in all the principal cities throughout New York state and a store in Kansas City, Mo. The Besse-Baker Co. employs entirely Vermont salesmen. Mr. Baker is one of the oldest and most successful clothing merchants in New England, he being formerly of Montpelier. We wish the boys the best of success upon their return to their duties.

There will be services at the Pentecostal church, Sunday, July 19, at 10 a. m. Class meeting, led by Mrs. E. Richardson, 10:45. Morning worship and sermon, 12 m. Sunday School, Mrs. Cunningham, Superintendent, 7:30 p. m. Preaching, by the pastor, 7:30 p. m. Thursday prayer meeting, subject, Lessons from the Ephesians. You are invited to attend these services.

STOWE

Charles Bruce is quite ill from an abscess on his knee.

Miss Ruth McMahon has returned from a three weeks' stay in Boston.

Miss Hattie Pratt is having a vacation from her duties in the postoffice.

Phil Kaiser has been confined to the house several days by a bad leg.

Mrs. O. J. Holden has gone to Landgrove to look after business interests.

Jeff Sherman of Gaysville has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. C. Chaffee.

Mrs. C. M. Watts and daughter, Marjorie, were visitors in Burlington Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Moody of Montpelier were guests at C. E. Burt's over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Churchill of Morrisville are at the Churchill residence for a day.

Mrs. H. F. Smith is quite ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Dwyer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McMahon are in camp with Prof. and Mrs. Reynolds at St. Albans Bay.

W. F. Churchill, who is here looking after his hay, is afflicted with a very painful eye trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Riddell of Burlington are occupying their cottage at Lake Mansfield through July.

A three and three-fourths pound son, Cedric Walter, was born July 8 to Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Robinson.

Mrs. W. A. Cheney and children of Ashmont, Mass., are spending a few weeks with Stowe relatives.

Mrs. Maggie Moody Fausch and children of Providence, R. I., are spending a month with Stowe relatives.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pike at the Mary Fletcher Hospital July 7th. Mother and son are doing well.

Fred Campbell and family of Westboro, Mass., are spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Morrill and Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Macutchan spent a portion of last week in camp at Green River.

The ladies of Unity church will serve ice cream, sherbet and cake at a band concert at the Palisades, Friday evening.

An Episcopal service was held on the lawn at Seven Springs Sunday afternoon. Rev. D. L. Sanford of Hardwick officiating.

Mrs. W. A. Cheney and two children of Milton, Mass., are with her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Pierson, for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Kline of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting Mrs. Kline's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Gale, on the West Branch.

Misses Barbara and Marjorie Burt returned Monday, after an absence of several months in the south and in Massachusetts.

Lightning struck Francis Paul's house on Edison Hill last Tuesday, partially stunning Mrs. Paul but doing no other damage.

Mrs. Irwin Adams left Monday for Nova Scotia, where she will spend a month visiting her parents and her girlhood home.

The Club rooms of the Sterling Club were thrown open to the wives of the Club members and invited friends Tuesday afternoon.

Henry and Olin Sanborn, F. J. Billings, Roy Ploof, J. R. Wells and A. C. Morrill went to Hardwick Tuesday evening to visit Hardwick Camp, M. W. A.

The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church will give a surprise party in the vestry at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. An attractive program has been arranged.

H. A. Pike, graduate optometrist and eyeglass specialist, of Brattleboro, will be in Stowe, at Boardman's Restaurant, Monday and Tuesday, July 27 and 28—ad.

A. J. Magoon and family have picked 1220 quarts of strawberries from less than a third of an acre. The berries have sold for 18 and 15 cents per basket.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Stygles, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stygles and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wright have been entertaining their friends the past week, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Worcester, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fogg of Enfield, N. H., were auto visitors here Sunday. On their return to Enfield Monday they were accompanied by Miss Maud Raymond and Mrs. H. C. McMahon.

Mrs. O. M. Holbrook of Belvidere came Friday for a week at the home of her son, A. O. Holbrook, on Luce Hill. Her son-in-law, J. H. Gray, of Hyde Park, who accompanied her, returned Friday.

Dan Russell was called to Waterbury Monday by the death of his brother, Edward Russell. Edward spent most of his life in Stowe but has been in Waterbury for the last three or four years. He is survived by a large family.

Fred Boardman was in Burlington Monday to bring home his daughter, Madeline, who was operated upon for appendicitis two weeks ago. The young lady is making a very satisfactory recovery.

There was an attendance of about 30 couples at the ball given by the Peerless orchestra at the Akeley Memorial building, Friday evening. Several couples from Morrisville were among the number.

C. O. Jelliff, who went to Southport, last week, with his son-in-law, M. R. Perry, returned to Stowe, Friday, accompanied by Mr. Perry's mother, Mrs. M. R. Perry, who is a guest at Lookout Farm.

Forty dairymen attended the creamery meeting held in Memorial hall Friday. W. L. Derrit, E. B. Gale and E. M. Houston were elected a committee to confer with the organizers of the Gold Brook Cooperative Creamery.

Last week was notable for its humidity, which came both from the skies above and by the more popular route via Waterbury. Two victims of the latter appeared before Judge Watts and were fined; Chas. Hayes $15 and costs for a second offence and George Laporte $5 and costs for a first offence.

New subscribers to the Citizen's Telephone exchange are H. G. Cleveland, E. F. Cleveland, Perley G. Adams, Selden C. Adams, Edwin W. Douglass and Vern R. Chamberlain. All are on line 16, which was recently extended to the Lake Mansfield Club house, and Elmer E. Barrows on line 18, ring 41.

The funeral of Mary Helen, infant daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. E. McKim, was held at their home in Newbury, Thursday. The child was about three weeks old and weighed only three pounds at birth. Mrs. McKim was formerly Miss Mattie Robinson and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Robinson of Stowe.

Mrs. M. J. Shonko died at her home at Stowe Forks Sunday afternoon, having been ill for several weeks. Besides her husband, she is survived by three daughters by a former marriage, Mrs. Wil Warren and Miss Della Shonko of Stowe and Mrs. Chase of St. Albans. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Lemuel Davis officiating.

The lecturer's program at the meeting of Mansfield Mountain Grange Saturday afternoon included songs by the choir; a paper, "How Can Mothers Best Teach Their Children High Ideals of Patriotism and Good Citizenship?" by Mrs. C. F. Eddy, followed by discussion; recitations by Mrs. Flora Blodgett and R. S. Warren; roll call, "If Not Myself Who Would I Be?"

A party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Shaw on Edison Hill, Wednesday of last week, was in honor of the sixth birthday of Mr. Shaw's mother, Mrs. Lydia A. Shaw. Forty neighbors and friends were present and a picnic supper was served. A shower of post cards and several presents were presented to Mrs. Shaw, who is the widow of Leonard Shaw, and who has been a lifelong resident of Stowe. She is the last survivor of the children of Jonathan and Hannah Moody Shaw, early settlers in Stowe, coming here from Maine. Her children are Mark L. Shaw of Elmore and Burt L. Shaw, Howard E. Shaw and Elmer E. Shaw of Stowe.

Although he was unable to attend the circus last Wednesday, M. C. Lovejoy had several little adventures which served to while away a long summer day. One of these incidents occurred while Mark was bringing the cream from his West Branch farm. He had decided to come across the river, which runs between his meadow and the main road. Midway of the stream the old horse sat down, rabidly, and continued to sit there for the better part of an hour, listening alternately to Mark and to the wild waves. Finally, with a rough glance at Mark, the horse bounded to its feet and pulled for the shore. Then other things happened.

Elmore S. A. Wolcott is ill. Excursion on Lake Champlain July 28. See advt on page 6. Alvin Robinson, sister and daughter, of Randolph are visiting him.

Miss Dorothy Nichols of Jericho is visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. S. Hutchins.

Mr. and Mrs. Boutwell of Clearwater, Minn., are visiting Rev. O. M. Boutwell.

Mrs. Bryan of Waterbury has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Robinson.

Glenn Gould of Brattleboro and Dr. Smith of Fitchburg, Mass., are at L. A. Wolcott's.

The Ladies' Social Club will hold an ice cream social at the town hall Wednesday evening, July 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Esterbrook of St. Johnsbury and daughter, Julia, of New York, visited S. A. Wolcott on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Kaiser and two youngest sons visited Mrs. Kaiser's sister, Mrs. N. B. Robinson, in Stowe Saturday and Sunday.

Garfield Road W. S. Cheney was in this place on business Monday.

David Tr